

Camp Dev Vilas Kanha

Destination

Kanha Tiger Reserve, Madhya Pradesh

Kanha Tiger Reserve-The land of tigers, leopards, bison, Jackals, wild dogs & hard ground Barasingha. Made a National Park in 1955, Kanha Tiger Reserve was one of first parks in India to be covered in Project Tiger initiative in 1974.

Today the park is spread over an area of 1940 square km across Mandla & Balaghat District of Madhya Pradesh. The landscape and surrounding meadows along with saal woodlands and dense forests offers magnanimous views to park visitors. Making the landscape more beautiful are crystal clear streams flowing through the forests & taals or water bodies which are lifeline for resident fauna.

The Location

Nearest  Airport &  rail head is Jabalpur which is 185 km from National park which is roughly 4- 4.30 hours driving distance from camp. Kanha is equally well connected by Nagpur (285km) & Raipur (220 km). Those willing to travel by train from Mumbai can opt for Gondia station which is 2 hours of driving distance from lodge.

Nagpur is well connected by flights from all major cities in India.

The Camp

Camp Dev Vilas is ideally located on the edge of Khapa Buffer forest on Kareli Gorakhpur Road, a convenient 20 minutes drive from Mukki Gate of Kanha Tiger Reserve. Spread over an area of 14 acres of terraced grasslands the lodge is an ideal getaway from chaotic city life. All our 10 identical cottages are well appointed to provide comfortable stay in rustic rural settings.
